* Biodynamic Preparations are living substances, subject to slight variations in product weight/humidity

* You may find red compost worms in the preparations. This is normal and does not alter their effectiveness.

It is essential to know how to store, stir and apply the Preparations correctly before placing your order.

If necessary, consult a Biodynamic advisor, farmer, experienced gardener or specialised literature to determine when and how often to use the Biodynamic Preparations. More information available at : www.biodynamie-services.fr
